eufolia

Like an olive leaf dancing in the wind, the Eufolia Sofa is designed to flow with its surroundings. Light, dense and elegantly shaped to bring a breath of freshness into any space. A cocoon of comfort to play, work or love from.

features

By Marcel Wanders studio

As an excellent interpreter of contemporary needs, the Dutch studio designed a modular padded system meeting the demand for a compact sofa that, through a series of optional modules, could respond to the needs of multifunctional and compact living areas without renouncing to a handcrafted high end handmade product, rich of precious details. Open base design with metal base in glossy black finishing gives a feeling of lightness to the model.

Padding

Absolute comfortable seat cushions thanks to a new polyurethane foam with high density. It is a brand new microcellular polyurethane foam, based on vegetable raw materials from natural renewable resources.

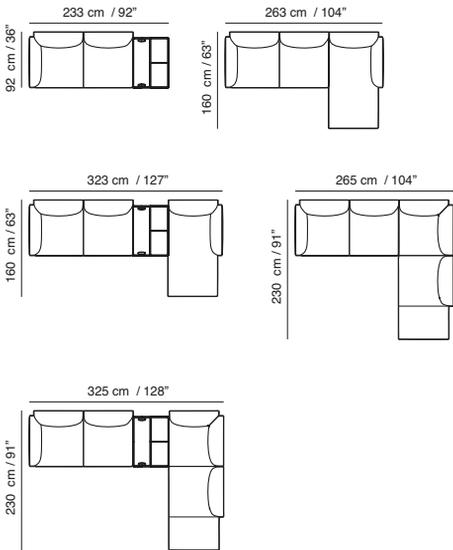

Coverings

Available with covering in leather, fabric, or BYBORRE fabric custom made for the project.

Feet

Metal feet.
